NEWPORT, R. I. Aug. 16—Lawn tennis form was again put to the test here on the second day of the thirtieth all comers national championship singles. Yet despite wet course and overhanging clouds the record field of 181 competitors was practically reduced to sixty-four survivors, as a total of sixty-four survivors, as a total of sixty-four matches were chalked upon the board as the result of the day's competitions on the Casino courts.

All of the californians, Thomas C Bundy, Trowbridge W Hendrick and Carlon B Gardner, maintained their places. Maurice E McLoughlin was not called upon to play behind him. After he had three times and they poured in until every available apace was filled. It was ladies' day, and promptly at 4 o'clock George Mills and pr
